

Letter from Chloe Smith MP to Returning Officers

A letter from Chloe Smith MP to Returning Officers and Electoral Registration Officers.

Criminal record reform to support ex-offenders into work

New legislation will help ex-offenders to find a job – allowing them to turn their lives around and ending the cycle of crime.

Dstl Scientists shortlisted for Women in Defence Awards 2020

Dstl's Dr Kate Gill and Sarah Strangleman have both been shortlisted in the 'Most Collaborative' category, which recognises 'where an individual has demonstrated that creating a collaborative working arrangement within their...

May labour market statistics for Scotland 2015

Latest employment figures for Scotland published.

November Labour Market Statistics for Scotland 2015

Unemployment in Scotland increased by 11,000 and stands at 166,000 in the period July to September 2015.