

Royal recognition for Dounreay team's Coronavirus response

Dounreay has been recognised by His Royal Highness The Duke of Rothesay for its support for the community during the Coronavirus pandemic.

21st century road upgrade sheds new light on Roman treasures, coins, roads – and potholes!

A major road upgrade in the north of England uncovered fascinating new evidence about a significant phase in British history – including the fact the Romans not only built roads, but also had to repair potholes!

Firm's investment will sustain jobs and make Sellafield safer, sooner

A Cumbrian business has unveiled a £500,000 investment which will help clean-up Sellafield while sustaining jobs and saving money for the taxpayer.

Sir Philip Barton appointed as Permanent Under-Secretary of new Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office

Sir Philip Barton has been appointed as the Permanent Under-Secretary of the new Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office.

Foreign Office statement on postponement of Hong Kong elections

Foreign Office statement in response to the postponement of the Legislative Council elections in Hong Kong.