

Somalia and Somaliland to benefit from new UK support to tackle locusts

UK aid package will help control millions of locusts attacking crops across East Africa, Yemen and South West Asia

UK Government Ministers support Wales' rural economy in virtual Royal Welsh Show discussion

Representatives from the agriculture and farming industries took part in a Q&A session to discuss the opportunities and challenges faced by the sector in Wales

UK space innovation programme launches with fund for climate change and communications projects

New National Space Innovation Programme to provide £15 million to support pioneering ideas in UK space sector

APHA launches recruitment campaign for plant health inspectors

APHA is recruiting over 100 new posts in its Plant Health and Seed Inspectorate

UK Government matches another £5 million of donations for coronavirus appeal after huge public response

Funds raised by the DEC appeal will support the work of the 14 leading UK charities, who are helping to stop the spread of the virus and saving lives in refugee camps.