

Commonwealth stands together on the global response to coronavirus

The Prime Minister has issued a joint statement alongside 53 Commonwealth Heads of Government, vowing to stand together against the challenges posed by the Coronavirus pandemic.

Digital diplomacy: UK's Asia Minister discusses science and business links with Vietnam as part of 'renewed focus' on relations

Foreign & Commonwealth Office Minister for Asia Nigel Adams MP held several high-level calls with Vietnamese government figures along with local and international experts on Thursday.

End of mission of Her Majesty's Ambassador to Paraguay

Mr Matthew Hedges will finish his term as Her Majesty's Ambassador to Paraguay in August.

First concrete pour a solid sign work is back on-site

The first concrete pour on the Sellafield site since restart has successfully been completed today, on the Sellafield Product and Residue Store Retreatment Plant site.

Q Developments win Homes England masterplanning award for planting housing on Surrey garden centre site

The award for Best Masterplan & Placemaking at the Housing Design Awards has gone to Q Developments for their housing scheme in Alford, Surrey.