

Latest update from CMA COVID-19 taskforce

The CMA has published a third update from its COVID-19 taskforce, which monitors and responds to competition and consumer problems arising from the pandemic.

Covid-19: CMA secures refunds from second major holiday lets firm

Following an investigation by the CMA, Sykes Cottages has reversed its policy on cancelled bookings and will now offer customers full refunds.

Self-isolation lifted for lower risk countries in time for holidays this summer

From 10 July 2020 you will be able to travel to many countries without having to self-isolate on return to the UK.

Public asked to leave a name and number with venues to help stop the spread of COVID-19

Executive Chair of NHS Test and Trace encourages public, businesses and organisations to “play their part in new national effort” by providing names and phone numbers with venues and businesses they visit from this Saturday

Up to £75,000 available for UK space technology projects

Government grants worth up to £75,000 are available to the UK space sector to develop new commercial technologies and bring them closer to market.