

UK calls for drastic action in Yemen as coronavirus infections reach one million

UK Minister for the Middle East expresses deep concern at rapidly rising number of coronavirus infections in Yemen amid ongoing conflict and humanitarian crisis.

Supporting agritech exports to Ukraine

We helped Legume Technology manage its payment risk when the private sector was unable to offer cover.

UN Human Rights Council 43: Interactive Dialogue on Libya

The UK's International Ambassador for Human Rights, Rita French, delivered this statement during the Interactive Dialogue on Libya

Flood-hit farmers can now apply to £6 million fund

The latest application round of the Farming Recovery Fund is now open to eligible farmers to apply for grants to help them recover from February floods.

Returning students given more time to apply for student finance

SLC Deputy CEO, David Wallace urges returning students to apply quickly.