

£5.4 million to support legal advice sector during the COVID-19 pandemic

People seeking help with housing, debt, discrimination and employment problems will benefit from a £5.4m boost thanks to new government funding.

Tax credits customers will continue to receive payments even if working fewer hours due to COVID-19

People who can't work their normal hours because of coronavirus (COVID-19) will still receive their usual tax credits payments.

Joint statement on reconciliation processes in Jubaland

International partners signed a joint statement welcoming the dialogue between the Jubaland administration and the leadership of the Jubaland Council for Change.

Judicial Review Case Management

Registered OISC immigration advisers can apply to do Judicial Review Case Management work

Charter flight from Jamaica for British travellers seeking to return to the UK

Around 140 British travellers will be able to get home from Jamaica on a charter flight organised by the Government in partnership with the travel company TUI.