

The Pensions Regulator moves email and web portal to the cloud

This case study is part of guidance on moving services to modern cloud solutions.

Our people

Together, our people make up the Analysis Function, a wider cross-government community.

Cellnex's purchase of Arqiva cleared by CMA after thorough review

The CMA has cleared the £2bn merger between Cellnex UK and Arqiva's telecommunication infrastructure division.

Carlisle City Council becomes latest local authority to join central Local Land Charges Register

HM Land Registry's digital Local Land Charges Register continues to grow, enabling the digital transformation of homebuying.

Letter to front line staff providing essential banking services

Letter from the Economic Secretary, John Glen, to front line staff working to provide essential banking services.