

Homes England ramps up development pipeline to support the housing market

Homes England, the government's housing agency, has revealed that it acquired 19 sites in the last financial year worth £180 million, with the land having the capacity for 5,000 new homes across the country.

Former Olympics director leads work to protect clinically vulnerable people

Chris Townsend OBE appointed to lead the cross government shielding programme in England.

Secretary of State for Northern Ireland welcomes additional funding to tackle coronavirus

Northern Ireland to receive an additional £200million to help fight the coronavirus

The Government is a strong supporter of free and competitive energy markets

Energy Minister Kwasi Kwarteng delivered a statement during the G20 meeting of energy ministers on Friday 10 April

The Dawn Chorus: tune into Nature during lockdown

Listen to one of nature's most special phenomena this Easter weekend.