

Economic and business response committee meets to discuss COVID-19

A new Committee to address the economic and business issues presented by COVID-19 has met for the first time today.

Culture Secretary works with charities to galvanise Covid-19 volunteers

The Government will help coordinate a major volunteering push to help support people through the COVID-19 outbreak.

The VMD remains open for business

VMD assures stakeholders that we continue to provide our services to regulate veterinary medicines.

Updated data protection impact assessment template and guidance launched

The SCC and ICO have updated the data protection impact assessment for surveillance cameras.

Chancellor of the Exchequer, Rishi Sunak on COVID19 response

The Chancellor announces further support in economic response to coronavirus.