

Government proposes duty to protect public spaces from terror

Government to consult on Protect Duty to improve safety and security at public venues and spaces

---

Flood risk continues with further rain expected this weekend

The Environment Agency warns that flood risk continues with the impacts of heavy rain continuing to be felt across England.

---

Iconic blue passports return next month

The first new blue passports will be issued from March 2020.

---

UN Open-Ended Working Group on developments in ICTs in the context of international security: Commonwealth statement

UK-delivered statement that built on the 2018 Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting Cyber Declaration, calling for greater UN coordination on cyber security.

---

British Ambassador visits the

Adjacency Zone

The British Ambassador to Guatemala, Nick Whittingham, travelled to Petén.