

UK Government tackles heart disease with new partnership

The UK Government has announced its intent to pursue an innovative new collaboration to tackle heart disease with pharmaceutical company Novartis

Council Tax information letter: 14 January 2020

This letter sets out the impact on the administration of Council Tax of 2 pieces of legislation which have recently been laid before Parliament.

Arts Minister launches call to save a Medieval guide for hermits

'The Myrowr of Recluses' a 15th century manuscript is at risk of export unless a UK buyer can be found□

Rosehill Theatre, Whitehaven, Cumbria

A refurbishment project to update the existing Rosehill Theatre which would help to revive the performing arts in west Cumbria and involve the whole community in creative ventures.

Campus Whitehaven

A brand new state-of-the-art education and activity hub which brings together St Benedict's Catholic High School and Mayfield School for children with special educational needs.