

Decommissioning drones take to the sky

Unmanned Aerial Vehicles (UAVs), or drones, have undergone rapid development over the last few years, with many leisure and commercial uses.

Jenrick overhauls tenancy agreement to help end pet bans

Housing Secretary calls on landlords to make it easier for responsible tenants to have well behaved pets in their homes.

£40 million investment to reduce NHS staff login times

The new investment in frontline technology will free up thousands of NHS staff hours each day by improving how staff access computer systems.

'Get quacking' – with less than a month to go

HMRC is urging Self Assessment customers to complete their Self Assessment tax return before the 31 January 2020 deadline.

Measures to make Britain's power network more resilient planned, after August power outage

Government-backed report into the blackouts in August that affected over 1 million customers in Great Britain, published today.