

South Sudan: Troika statement, 2 January 2020

Troika statement reviewing progress towards the formation of South Sudan's revitalised Transitional Government of National Unity.

Time-saving road marking robot makes it a happy new year for drivers

A clever little robot is saving drivers on England's busiest roads from hundreds of hours of disruption.

November 2019 Price Paid Data

HM Land Registry Price Paid Data tracks land and property sales in England and Wales submitted to us for registration.

Government announces pay rise for 2.8 million people

National Living Wage set to increase by 6.2% in 2020

First opposite-sex civil partnerships to take place on New Year's Eve

As the country prepares for celebrations to bring in the New Year, thousands of opposite-sex couples will today (31 December 2019) also be celebrating the formalisation of their relationships with a civil partnership.