

Terrorism threat level lowered to Substantial

The UK threat level from terrorism has today been reduced to Substantial – meaning an attack is likely.

Transformative North Wales Growth Deal signed

The multi-million pound North Wales Growth Deal made progress with the signing of Heads of Terms by the UK Government, Welsh Government and the North Wales Economic Ambition Board.

Time for Justice: Putting Survivors First conference postponed

Lord Ahmad's statement on the postponement and the government's commitment to ensure survivors are central to the response to conflict-related sexual violence.

CMA response to Ofgem letter on regulatory appeals

The Competition and Markets authority's response to Ofgem, clarifying our position on potential Energy Licence Modification Appeals.

34th Universal Periodic Review: UK statement on Italy

Ambassador and Permanent Representative to the UN in Geneva, Julian Braithwaite, delivers UK statement on Italy at the 34th UPR, commending their efforts to tackle all forms of modern slavery.