

'Minded to' letter on public library provision in Swindon

Letter from Minister for Arts, Heritage and Tourism, Helen Whately, stating the Secretary of State's 'minded to' decision on public library provision in Swindon.

New digital forensics unit boosts crackdown on crime in jails

A new digital forensics unit and expanded digital investigations team will crack down on criminal activity involving devices smuggled into jails.

Operation Brock activated on M20

The Operation Brock contraflow on the M20 in Kent is now active, Highways England has confirmed today (Monday 28 October).

UK technology headlines at CEBIT Australia

A British delegation of innovative technology companies and leading tech experts have arrived in Australia for the UK's flagship showcase at CEBIT in Sydney.

Suicide bereavement support to be made available across England

Personalised bereavement support will be available on the NHS in England to care for people after a relative or friend's suicide.