

Graeme Tunbridge appointed interim Director of Devices

The MHRA's new interim Director of Devices will take up his post on 21 October

Sun explorer spacecraft leaves for launch site

The UK-built Solar Orbiter is preparing to leave Germany, where it has been undergoing final testing, for its launch site at Cape Canaveral in Florida, USA.

Dounreay waste store construction work ahead of schedule

Construction work on the latest radioactive waste store at Dounreay is setting records

Government recommit support to victims on Anti-Slavery Day

Nationwide events and new Migration and Modern Slavery Envoy mark the day.

Nationwide to pay up to £2m in refunds for PPI breaches

More than 7,000 customers are to be refunded after the CMA found Nationwide failed to send important PPI information.