

Somerset landowner kills fish by tipping chemicals on ground

Tipping chemicals left over from his plant nursery business onto gravel ended up in a stream and killing hundreds of fish.

Drone strike on Saudi Arabia: UK statement

UK condemns Houthi drone attack on Aramco oil facilities in Saudi Arabia.

Businesses escalate push for Association Agreement with the UK

The British Chamber of Commerce (BritCham), Guatemalan exporters and the British Embassy visited Congress to encourage urgent approval of the UK – Central America Association Agreement.

Privy Council appointment: 13 September 2019

Chris Skidmore MP is to be sworn of Her Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

PM sets out plans to give the North more control of rail services

Northern mayors and combined authorities will have greater control over setting local train fares, timetables, and budgets under sweeping new plans set out by the Prime Minister.