

Three anglers prosecuted after obstructing fisheries bailiff

The three attempted to escape the bailiff by running away and hiding in bushes before being caught.

Review to continue improvements in bio-waste sector

The Environment Agency is set to launch a review of permitted waste sites within the bio-waste sector, which includes composting, anaerobic digestion and mechanical biological treatment.

Two convicted of running illegal school in London

A head teacher and her father have been found guilty of running an unregistered school in south London, in only the second prosecution of its kind.

Joint statement on possible annexation of areas in the West Bank

France, Germany, Italy, Spain and the UK concerned move would be contrary to international law and damaging to peace efforts.

Education Secretary visits the West Midlands

Gavin Williamson meets staff and students at Dudley College of Technology and Walsall Studio School.