

MOD unveils transformed approach to innovation

Artificial intelligence and 3D printing are some of the concepts outlined in the new approach to harnessing innovation and developing emerging technologies.

Closing the gap: how can we address the gender pay gap?

British Embassy Warsaw will host a workshop to share experience and best practices on how to address the gender pay gap in Poland and in the UK.

Lord Mayor of London in Australia to boost financial sector links

Opportunities for collaboration in fintech and green finance will be high on the agenda as the Lord Mayor of London visits Australia this week.

New Alberta and UK Innovation Partnership

Alberta and the UK have agreed a new Memorandum of Understanding on Co-operation in Science, Technology and Innovation.

UK to allocate £1.5 million to help hurricane-hit Bahamas

The UK Government has set aside an initial £1.5 million towards the immediate response to Hurricane Dorian in The Bahamas.