

SCS grieves over passing of fireman

The Secretary for the Civil Service, Mrs Ingrid Yeung, today (January 19) expressed deep sorrow over the passing of a fireman, Mr Yau Yiu-man, who was sent to hospital due to discomfort during his work at Penny's Bay and then passed away. She extended her deepest condolences to Mr Yau's family.

Mr Yau served the Fire Services Department (FSD) for over 31 years. The Civil Service Bureau is in contact with the FSD to make every effort to help the family during this sad and difficult period.
