

SCST expresses sorrow over passing of renowned composer Dr Yip Wai-hong

The Secretary for Culture, Sports and Tourism, Mr Kevin Yeung, was saddened today (June 18) over the passing of renowned composer and music educator Dr Yip Wai-hong, and extended deepest condolences to his family.

Mr Yeung said, "Dr Yip devoted his life to musical composition and made significant contributions to children's music education in particular, nurturing many music talents. The Hong Kong Children's Choir and Pan Asia Symphony Orchestra, founded by Dr Yip, have made remarkable achievements. Dr Yip is an exemplar among Hong Kong artists. His passing is our loss and we will fondly remember him."
