

Second community drop in event to be held in Matlock

Event will provide an opportunity for locals to find out about work to restore flood protection, the construction programme and its impact on the town.