

Second consultation begins on Keighley waste incinerator permit application

Residents and interested groups invited to submit any new information on the draft permit decision