

Second round of Moldova's presidential elections – UK statement to the OSCE, November 2024

The UK congratulates President Maia Sandu on her re-election, and looks forward to continuing support to Moldova's economic and democratic reforms as it works towards its European future.