

Secretary for Security visits Kwun Tong (with photos)

The Secretary for Security, Mr John Lee, visited Kwun Tong this afternoon (June 26) with a view to staying abreast of its law and order situation and the livelihood conditions of local people. He also visited a youth service centre in the district.

Accompanied by the District Officer (Kwun Tong), Mr Steve Tse, Mr Lee first met with members of the Kwun Tong District Council to exchange views on law and order matters and other issues relating to people's livelihood in the district.

Afterwards, Mr Lee visited the Ngau Tau Kok Youth Integrated Service Centre of Kwun Tong Methodist Social Service. The centre provides a variety of services for children and young people in need for their development.

Mr Lee was briefed on the services and operation of the centre. He also toured the facilities, including the band room, the children's activity room and the dance room.

Before concluding his visit, Mr Lee chatted with young people who were visiting the centre and encouraged them to pursue their dreams at a sharing session.
