

Secretary of Commissioner of Police tests preliminarily positive for COVID-19

Police today (March 28) noted that the secretary of the Commissioner of Police, Mr Siu Chak-ye, has preliminarily tested positive for COVID-19.

The secretary last performed duties on March 17, without the need to have contact with the public. She wore masks and followed relevant disease prevention measures at work. Police have conducted thorough cleaning and disinfection at the workplace concerned.

Mr Siu has taken a COVID-19 rapid test and the result is negative.
