

Self-driving delivery boats to benefit from £1.8 million future transport fund

Grants will help innovators develop new concepts – such as an automated boat that could deliver parcels by water – to tackle pressing transport issues.