

Services of Leisure Link counter booking and self-service kiosks resume normal

The Leisure and Cultural Services Department announced today (December 30) that the Leisure Link counter booking and self-service kiosks services have resumed as normal. The booking services had been suspended for system enhancement works.