

SHA expresses deep sorrow at passing of Professor Louis Cha

The Secretary for Home Affairs, Mr Lau Kong-wah, today (October 30) expressed deep sorrow over the passing of Professor Louis Cha and extended his deepest condolences to Professor Cha's family.

Mr Lau said, "The masterpieces written by Professor Cha laid the cornerstone of the development of martial arts (Wuxia) novels in Hong Kong. The permanent exhibition of Jin Yong Gallery in the Hong Kong Heritage Museum showcases Professor Cha's contribution to Hong Kong culture since its establishment. Professor Cha's work and its chivalrous spirit manifested will always be recognised and remain for generations. He will be remembered fondly."
