

Shek O Beach temporarily closed

Attention TV/radio announcers:

Please broadcast the following as soon as possible:

Here is an item of interest to swimmers.

The Leisure and Cultural Services Department announced today (October 11) that Shek O Beach in Southern District, Hong Kong Island is temporarily closed until further notice for maintenance of the shark prevention net. The reg flag has been hoisted at the beach. Beach-goers are advised not to swim at the beach.