

SIA giving confiscated cash to charities to aid public safety

Charities and community groups can now apply for grants to support projects aimed at improving public safety and supporting the private security.