

Sick person in custody dies in public hospital

A sick 68-year-old male person in custody at Stanley Prison died in a public hospital today (January 30).

The person in custody suffered from liver cancer and hypertension. He required continuous medical care and follow-up at the institution hospital and a public hospital. This morning, he was sent to a public hospital for treatment due to physical discomfort. During hospitalisation, his condition deteriorated and he was certified dead at 1.07pm today.

The case has been reported to the Police. A death inquest will be held by the Coroner's Court.

The person in custody was sentenced to imprisonment for the offence of trafficking in a dangerous drug in March 2020.
