

SITI to attend World Internet Conference Wuzhen Summit in Wuzhen

The Secretary for Innovation, Technology and Industry, Professor Sun Dong, will depart for Wuzhen, Zhejiang, tomorrow (November 7) to attend the 2023 World Internet Conference Wuzhen Summit.

The 2023 World Internet Conference Wuzhen Summit, with the theme "Creating an Inclusive and Resilient Digital World Beneficial to All – Building a Community with a Shared Future in Cyberspace", is hosted by the World Internet Conference and undertaken by the People's Government of Zhejiang Province. Professor Sun will attend the opening ceremony and plenary session of the Conference, and deliver an opening speech at the Cross-Strait, Hong Kong and Macao Internet Development Forum. During his visit, he will also conduct a study on technology enterprises in Zhejiang.

The Government Chief Information Officer, Mr Tony Wong, will also attend the Summit.

Professor Sun will return to Hong Kong on Thursday afternoon (November 9). During his absence, the Under Secretary for Innovation, Technology and Industry, Ms Lillian Cheong, will be the Acting Secretary for Innovation, Technology and Industry.