

Siu Lun Sports Centre to open on November 5 (with photos)

â€‹Siu Lun Sports Centre, managed by the Leisure and Cultural Services Department (LCSD), will open in phases for public use from November 5 (Tuesday), providing a wide range of leisure and sports facilities. The centre is the fifth indoor sports centre and includes the first indoor children's play room under the LCSD in Tuen Mun District.

The new sports centre occupies the second to fifth floors of Tuen Mun Siu Lun Government Complex at 19 Siu Lun Street, Tuen Mun, and has a total area of about 5 900 square metres. A fitness room, a table-tennis room and a children's play room on the third and fourth floors will open in the first phase on November 5, while an outdoor sport climbing wall on the second floor, activity rooms on the fourth floor and a multi-purpose arena on the fifth floor will open in the next phase.

Adjacent to Siu Lun Sports Ground and Tsing Sin Playground, the sports centre is easily accessible by Light Rail, bus or minibus. It will be open from 7am to 11pm daily, except on the first and third Wednesdays of every month when it will be closed from 7am to 1pm for regular maintenance.

Members of the public can reserve the facilities of Siu Lun Sports Centre from November 1 via the Leisure Link computerised booking system, booking counters or self-service kiosks in accordance with the LCSD's booking procedure for leisure and sports facilities. For enquiries, please call the venue staff at 2659 2311, or visit the LCSD website (www.lcsd.gov.hk/en/index.html).
