

Six arrested following seizure of prescription-only and unlicensed medicines in the West Midlands

It is suspected that the pills were being sold through illegally operating websites