

Smithfield Public Library reopened

The Leisure and Cultural Services Department announced today (October 5) that Smithfield Public Library in Central and Western District has reopened. The library was temporarily closed earlier on due to urgent repair works at the building.