

Smithfield Public Library temporarily closed

The Leisure and Cultural Services Department announced today (October 1) that due to urgent repair works at the building, the Smithfield Public Library in Central and Western District is temporarily closed until further notice. During the service suspension period, the book drop service of the library remains available.