Social Housing tenants encouraged to 'Make Things Right'

£2 million advertising campaign empowering residents to report issues and make complaints as part of efforts to improve social housing conditions.