

Social housing tenants helped to cut energy bills with £80 million for home upgrades

More social housing tenants to receive energy efficiency upgrades in their home, with an additional £80 million under Social Housing Decarbonisation Fund.