

Social housing to be prioritised for veterans

New measures announced to provide improved access for members of the Armed Forces, veterans and their families to social housing.