

South East to benefit from £6.5 billion transport investment

Multibillion-pound plan to link major cities via bus, rail and new and improved roads includes funding for South East transport schemes.