

South West Water in court for series of alleged offences

The company faces a series of alleged offences across Cornwall and in Plymouth for a six year period between 2015 and 2021.