

South West Water legal challenge to reduce charges fails

The water company tried to have 12 charges against it for sewage spills from two sewage pumping stations in Cornwall dropped.