Speaking out about strangles

Speaking out about strangles — an infectious equine disease — is the focus of a new national week of action launched by SRUC in partnership with some of the UK's largest horse welfare organisations.