

Speech: Education Secretary sets out five foundations to build character

Damian Hinds spoke at the Church of England Foundation for Educational Leadership conference about his vision to help children build character and resilience.