

Speech: Environment Secretary shares further information on Local Nature Recovery and Landscape Recovery schemes

Speaking at the Oxford Farming Conference, George Eustice unveiled the next stages of plan to reward farmers and landowners for actions which benefit the environment, supporting sustainable food production alongside vital nature recovery and work towards net zero.