

Speech: Universities Minister calls for greater improvement on access

Chris Skidmore spoke at Nottingham Trent University outlining his priority to drive improvements in access and participation in higher education.