

SRUC launches new three year drive to build awareness of mental ill health

Scotland's Rural College (SRUC) has launched a new three year healthy learning and wellbeing strategy to support staff and students to improve productivity and learning.