

SSRO accepts application for a determination

News story

On 3 December 2021 the SSRO accepted an application from a party to a qualifying defence contract for a determination under the Defence Reform Act 2014.

SSRO

Single Source
Regulations Office

The SSRO has been asked to determine the extent to which research and development costs are allowable, including consideration of Research and Development Expenditure Credit.

Published 22 December 2021